

OUR WORLD

By Lonnie Norwood, Jr.

Verse 1

Let's all get on one accord
To help the least among us
Their needs are mine and yours
Drop your guns, study war no more
Take the pledge for peace
Like never before

Bridge

There are many, many places
And so many, many faces
It's a canvas, a collection of
Beauty and perfection

Hook

This our world
Oh-oh, oh-oh
This is our world
Hear the cry of every nation (repeat)

Verse 2

Loose the grip of imprisonment
Freedom seeds we'll sow
Watch our garden grow
Don't live life thinking colorblind
See me with your eyes
An intentional design

Bridge

There are many, many places
And so many, many faces
It's a canvas, a collection of
Beauty and perfection

Hook

This our world
Oh-oh, oh-oh
This is our world
Hear the cry of every nation (repeat)

Rap

While I ride dis beat
Imma rock for peace
From the Chi-Town streets
Into the Middle East

Fightin' government cutbacks
Civilian setbacks
Our voice in combat
No, we won't turn back from
Breakin' da bind
Genocide of da mind
We rep da universal squad
Better known as mankind
We are da dream keepers
Da good life seekers
Generation believers
All my free world leaders
Stand up!

Bridge

(Ooh) There are many, many places
And so many, many faces
It's a canvas, a collection of
(Ah!) Beauty and perfection

Hook

This our world
Oh-oh, oh-oh
(Ah!) This is our world
Hear the cry of every nation (repeat)

Special

America, Canada, South Africa
Spain, Portugal, Nicaragua
Germany, Italy, India
Fiji, Haiti, Armenia (Oh-oh, oh-oh)
U.K., Uruguay, Colombia
Ghana, Jamaica, Australia
Thailand, Sweden, Nigeria
France, Cuba, China, you are all of us

Hook

Our world! Oh-oh, oh-oh
This is our world
(Ah!) Hear the cry of every nation

This is our world, oh-oh, oh-oh
This is our world
Hear the cry of every nation

This is our world!

Black Vernacular English

Dis: This

Imma: I am going to

Da: The

Rep: Represent

Other Words

Chi-Town is a nickname for Chicago